

MUJER Research Committee's
Latin American/Latina Feminisms Course

Are you curious about Latin American women's movements? Do you want to learn about Latina feminisms? Or, about Latinas in Canada? If the answer is yes, join us this fall for our Latina and Latin American Feminisms course where we'll explore these questions and much more.

The course starts Tuesday, October 6, 2009 and will be held every Tuesday from 6:00pm to 8:00pm until November 10, 2009 in a convenient downtown location at St. George and Bloor Streets (St. George subway).

In the course's six sessions we'll look at Latin American and Latina women's history from a variety of perspectives including political organizing, feminist activism and cultural production and representation.

This course is open to all Latinas, between the ages of 18 and 29.

If you would like further information on the course or on how to register, email us at latinafeminism@gmail.com or call Magaly at 416-531-2411 ext.248.

The deadline to apply for course registration is September 8, 2009.
Registration is limited so contact us soon!

This course is organized by MUJER's Research Committee and is sponsored by the Centre for Women's Studies in Education, OISE, University of Toronto.
