

Young Latinas in Leadership Roles

Promoting Healthy & Equal Relationship.

An organization that promotes the Integral Development of Latin American Women

Goal

MUJER aims to empower young Latinas to become leaders in the Jane -Finch and Weston neighborhood.

Objective

To train 15 young Latinas women through Leadership Training Model to gain tools, skills, and knowledge on promoting Healthy and Equal Relationships.

Who should attend?

This training is directed to all Youth Latinas Lives in Jane - Finch and Weston area.

- * Are between the ages 17-24, can speak Spanish and/or English.
- * Share MUJER's philosophy of working from an inclusive, feminist anti- oppression framework.
- * Are committed to become and activist against women's violence.
- * Link with other youth Latinas at school level.

Workshop Dates

Training will be expected to start September 25, though November 30

Location: To Be Determined

Funded by: Youth Challenge Fund, YCF

Leadership Training on Violence Prevention

Workshops Topics includes:

- Violence against women in a historical and cultural context
- Healthy and Equal Relationships
- Self Esteem and Self - Worth
- Sexuality and Reproductive Rights
- Addressing Changes in Society.
- Youth Latinas as Agent of changes.

Trainings will be free; TTC, DINNERS AND CHILD-CARE (if needed) WILL BE PROVIDED.

15 Young Latinas will be selected to MUJER's Leadership training Program

Mujer expects Commitment from participants.

- * To engage in public education
- * To support school outreach and presentations
- * To honor their commitment to the completion of trainings and practice.

Theory and Practice.

Trainings includes; 6 theoretical workshops of 3 & half hours one evening a week, 2 school presentations and 2 sessions to build presentations

REGISTRATION NOW!!

Deadline, September 12, 2008

For further information and registration contact: MUJER

416 -515-9413 www.mujer.ca

Attention: Heryka latina@mujer.ca